

On Thursday, September 23, 2021, at approximately 1:00pm, distribution system flow testing will be conducted near 384 South St. Residents and businesses in the vicinity may experience brief periods of reduced pressure or discolored water. This testing is necessary to gather important water flow data for a fire suppression system in the area.